

Bunny Blast

Location: Chapparosa Park, 25191 Chapparosa Park Road

Date	Day	Time	Cost
Apr 3	Sa	9am-12:30pm	$7 child $2 adult

Make crafts, get your face painted, play games, jump in the bounce house, visit the animals at the petting zoo and watch a Spring show. You can also saddle up for a pony ride and visit the Easter Bunny who will be strolling around. To keep this event non-competitive and a positive experience, there is no egg hunt. Food available for purchase.

Cost is $7 for children (ages 2-12, children under 2 are free) and $2 for adults (13 and older). Pay (cash) admission at the event. Parents should determine if this is an age appropriate activity for their children. All activities may be canceled if it rains on event day. Please call the Recreation Hotline for an event update at 362-4351 ext 1. No dogs or smoking allowed in the event area.

“Surviving College: Eating Right & Managing a Food Budget”

Parent/Teen Workshop

Location: Crown Valley Park, View Room

Date	Day	Time	Cost
Apr 22	Th	7-8pm	Free

Is your teen preparing to go to college or are they trying to prepare healthy meals, but don't know where to start? Are they on a tight budget, but still would like to eat healthy? Do they walk into a grocery store and wonder where to start? Please join Gerrie Adams from WholeFoods Market as she covers various nutritional topics related to teens that are college bound or on their own for the first time. Suitable for teens and their parents. This is a great opportunity for your teen to learn how to function nutritionally in the real world. Seating is limited. Call 425-5100 to reserve your spot.
